To do this, ManoMano is organizing this call for projects thereby enabling all do-it-yourselfers to participate in the crazy adventure of realizing their project and creating this series.

ManoMano is looking for 5 European do-it-yourselfers who want to share a DIY project with the whole DIY community. Any mind-blowing adventure that has led to a major project through manual work and the use of DIY tools may be selected for an episode in the "THE AMAZING MAKING OF" series.

This series is intended to be broadcast in particular on the Internet in order to strengthen links between DIY community members.
